Review of Applications:

- Gerardo Olivares: Artist presented twenty-two pieces of famous and everyday people for consideration. He included many nudes that are unacceptable for display. Since members reviewed and rated the artist with an average score under five over ten, he was not approved to exhibit. Committee will prepare a letter notifying artist of the members' decision.
- Gloria Cohen: Presented application and pictures of small glass sculptures. She did not stipulate sizes of her work. Members agreed that this art was not appropriate to exhibit due to lack of show case and pedestals available to display. Members did not rate her artwork. Committee will inform artist that City facilities are not equipped to exhibit sculptures.
- Santiago Medina: Artist presented through his website monumental size 3D art. These did not specify sizes. It is also not possible for the City to accommodate his sculptures for display.
- Lori Allwine: The artist creates stain glass art. According to Larry Joe Miller, who knows the artist, her art is hangeable. He has seen how she hangs her art in Studio 18 of Pembroke Pines and could ask her to give him a sample of how she would display the work. Mike Wharton considers that generally patrons feel attracted to touch art and because of this, City Hall would be a better place to exhibit. Larry Committee will contact artist regarding the committee's suggestions.
