(1) An applicant shall sign a sworn statement, included in the Vacation Rental license application under penalty of perjury, that he or she believes the subject property is in compliance with all City code and Broward County and State of Florida building codes.

(3) Failure to respond for a scheduled inspection, ignoring calls pertaining to an inspection, and rental of a Vacation Rental without a proper license therefor shall cause the City to seek an inspection warrant. If an inspection warrant is issued, a fee in an amount set by resolution of the City Commission will be assessed for the costs related to the obtaining and execution of the warrant.

(4) If an inspection warrant is issued and entry is still refused, the individual refusing entry may be subject to prosecution for the willful refusal to permit an inspection authorized by an inspection warrant issued pursuant to state law – a misdemeanor of the second degree.

(E) Once a Vacation Rental passes inspection and is issued a license, such Vacation Rental shall be properly maintained in accordance with the standards and requirements set forth in this chapter and all other applicable regulations. In the event a notice of violation is issued, all violations shall be corrected and re-inspected within 30 calendar days after the issuance of the notice of violation, with the exception of life safety violations, which will deem the Vacation Rental unsafe and not lawful for further occupancy until corrected and inspected. Failure to correct such violations within the timeframes provided shall result in the suspension of the Vacation Rental license until such time that the violations are corrected, re-inspected, and found in compliance.

(F) In the event a Vacation Rental property is found guilty or admits guilt, regardless of adjudication, of a violation, citation, or a notice to appear two times in a 12 month period, the Vacation Rental license shall be suspended pending the development by the property owner of a written action plan outlining the specific measures that the owner will take to eliminate the reoccurrence of the violation at the property; provided, however, that if the second finding or admission of guilt is for the same violation, paragraph 119.58(D)(2) shall apply and this subsection shall not apply.

(1) The property owner shall provide the action plan to the City no later than five business days from the date of the second finding or admission of guilt, regardless of adjudication. A fee in an amount set by resolution of the City Commission shall be charged for each action plan submitted to cover review costs.

(2) If the City determines that the action plan is adequate to eliminate the reoccurrence of nuisance activities on the properties, the property owner shall implement the plan within five business days from the date the action plan is deemed adequate.

(3) If the property owner successfully completes the action plan within the time period established by the City and pays all associated fines and costs imposed by the City, the Vacation Rental license will be restored.

(4) If the City determines that the action plan is not adequate to eliminate the reoccurrence of the violations on the property, the City may require the property owner to revise the action plan. The property owner shall submit the revised action plan to the City no later than five days from the date the action plan is determined to be inadequate. The submittal of an inadequate action plan on three consecutive occasions shall result in the revocation of the Vacation Rental license.
